Been trying to finish the setup for an hour now. I get to the part where I add my cart and submit a payment and nada.

The code is added to my site. But still there's no dashboard or anything, still asks me to set up my domain. :/

Edit: I figured it out. My site has a forced "www" in front of it so I had to add the website again.

Hey Meli, I'm glad you figured it out. Yeah the domain needs to perfectly match whatever the browser ends up with after redirects and such.

Thanks for joining the community!
